What the Statehood Bill Provides.

Now that the probability of the passage of the joint statehood bill is greater than ever, it is interesting to note the principal provisions of the measure as it passed the house. By keeping these provisions in mind our readers will better understand such amendments as may be made by the senate committee on territories. The first portion of the bill—sections one to eighteen inclusive—relate to the admission of Oklahoma and Indian territory as one state.

Section 19 provides that "the inhabitants of all that part of the area of the United States now constituting the territories of Arizona and New Mexico, as at present described, may become the state of Arizona, as hereinafter provided."

Section 20 is comprehensive. It provides that all the qualified electors of the two territories, respectively, shall be entitled to vote for and choose delegates to form a constitutional convention for said territories. The convention is to select 110 delegates, seventy of whom shall be elected from New Mexico and forty from Arizona. The governor, chief justice and secretary of each territory are to apportion the delegates for the same, "as nearly as may be equitable among the several counties thereof," in accordance with the census of 1900. Thirty days after the approval of the bill by the president, the governor of each territory shall issue a proclamation ordering an election of delegates to the constitutional convention. The election of delegates must take place on the tenth Tuesday after the approval of the act. In other words, the election for delegates to the constitutional convention will be held about three months after congress passes the bill. There must be a general registration of voters. Citizens in order to vote must have resided in the territory one year, in the county six months, and thirty days in the precinct where they are to vote. This registration is to answer for the subsequent election to be held for the ratification of the constitution and the election of state officers.

Section 21 provides that the delegates to the constitutional convention shall meet at Santa Fe on the fifth Monday after their election. They are not to receive compensation for more than sixty days of service in the convention.
The convention must form a constitution, republican in form, which shall contain these provisions:

First. That perfect toleration of religious sentiment shall be secured, and that no inhabitant of the state shall ever be molested in person or property on account of his or her mode of religious worship; and that polygamous marriages are forever prohibited.

Second. That the people inhabiting the proposed state do agree and declare that they forever disclaim all right and title to the unappropriated and ungranted public lands lying within the boundaries thereof, and to all lands owned or held by Indians. The paragraph goes into detail as to the manner in which the rights of the Indians must be protected.

Third. That all the debts of the territories of Arizona and New Mexico are to be assumed and paid by the state.

Fourth. There must be provision for the establishment and maintenance of a system of public schools, free from sectarian control and conducted in English; although the teaching of other languages is not prohibited in the public schools.

Fifth. That the state shall never enact any law abridging or restricting the right of suffrage "on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude, or on account of any other conditions or qualifications save and except on account of illiteracy, minority, sex, conviction of felony, mental condition, or residence."

Sixth. That the capital of the state shall be at Santa Fe, and shall not be changed therefrom until 1910. After that year the location of the capital may be permanently fixed by a majority vote.

Section 22 provides that if a constitution is formed by the convention in compliance with the terms of the enabling act, the convention must provide by ordinance for submitting the constitution to the people for their ratification or rejection, at an election to be held at a time fixed in said ordinance. But this election must be not less than sixty days nor more than six months after the adjournment of the convention. At this election the registered voters are to vote directly for or against the proposed constitution, and for or against any provision thereof that may be separately submitted. The governors and chief justices of the two territories, or any three of them, are to meet at Santa Fe on the third Monday after the election and canvass the vote. If a majority of the legal votes cast on that question shall be for the constitution, the canvassing board are to certify the result to the president of the United States. Then, if the president finds that the constitution adopted is republican in form and complies with the provisions of this act, he will issue his proclamation announcing the result of the election, and thereupon the proposed state shall be deemed admitted by congress into the union, "under the name of Arizona, on an equal footing with the original states, from and after the date of the said proclamation."

Section 23 provides that until the next general census, or until otherwise provided by law, the state shall be entitled to two representatives in congress (in addition to two United States senators). The congressmen and state officers are to be voted for on the same day of the election for the adoption of the constitution; and until the state officers are elected and qualified under the provisions of the constitution, and the state is admitted into the union, the territorial officers of the two territories, respectively, shall continue to discharge the duties of their respective offices.

Sections 24, 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29 of the bill grant public lands to the proposed state, for various purposes. Four sections of land in each township are given for the support of the public schools. Two hundred sections of non-mineral land are granted for the purpose of erecting public buildings, and for the payment of the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued therefor. Former grants of land for university and other purposes are confirmed, and in addition thereto three hundred sections are given for the maintenance of the university. In addition to these grants, 200,000 acres are given for insane asylums; 200,000 acres for penitentiaries; 200,000 acres for deaf, dumb and blind asylums; 100,000 acres for hospitals for disabled miners; 200,000 acres for normal schools; 200,000 acres for charitable, penal and reformatory institutions; 200,000 acres for agricultural and mechanical colleges; 200,000 acres for schools of mines, and 200,000 acres for military institutes. Sections 31 and 32 prescribe the methods for selecting the land, and exempt all mineral lands.

Section 33 provides that the state shall comprise two United States judicial districts, to be named, respectivelly, the eastern and western districts of Arizona. This, of course, will call for the appointment of two federal judges, to life positions. The boundaries of the two judicial districts are to be the same as the present boundaries of the two territories. Federal courts, district and circuit, are to be held at Albuquerque and Phoenix. For each district, in addition to a judge, the bill provides for a United States district attorney and a United States marshal.
Sections 34 and 35 relate to procedure in these federal courts.

Section 36 requires that the constitutional convention shall by ordinance provide for the election of officers for a full state government, including members of the legislature and two representatives in congress, at the time for the election for the ratification or rejection of the constitution.
The two congressional districts are to have the boundaries of the two territories, respectively, so that the people of the present territory of Arizona, for example, will elect a congressman, and the people of New Mexico will elect a congressman. The constitution being ratified, and a legislature elected, the legislature is to meet at Santa Fe and elect two United States senators. All laws of the territories in force at the time of their admission into the union shall remain in force in the respective portions of said state until changed by the legislature of the state.

Section 37 appropriates one hundred thousand dollars for defraying all and every kind and character of expense incident to the elections and conventions provided for in this act. It is provided that the members of the constitutional convention are to draw the same mileage and salary that are paid to members of the legislature at present.

From this digest of the pending bill it is seen that if it is enacted into law, next year will be a busy one in Arizona and New Mexico, politically. The call for the election of members of the constitutional convention, the proceedings of the convention, the subsequent campaign and the general election to follow, followed by the canvassing of the returns and the proclamation of the president—if the people vote to enter the union—will consume practically all of the year. And if there is to be a state composed of the territories of Arizona and New Mexico, it will begin its existence about one year from this date.

The various county officers of the two territories will be anxious, of course, to know something about their tenure of office in case the new deal goes through. Naturally, this is a matter which will be determined in the constitutional convention. It may provide that the incumbents shall serve the terms for which they were elected.
Indeed, this would be the logical course to pursue.

If every woman's face was hef-fortune there would be a run on the veil market.—Chicago Journal.

Miss Hapgood tells how she was cured of Fallopian and Ovarian Inflammation—and escaped an awful operation by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for four years with what the doctors called Salpingitis (inflammation of the fallopian tubes) and ovaritis, which are most distressing and painful ailments, affecting all the surrounding parts, undermining the constitution, and sapping the life forces. If you had seen me a year ago, before I began taking Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and had noticed the sunken eyes, sallow complexion, and general emaciated condition, and compared that person with me as I am today, robust, hearty and well, you would not wonder that I feel thankful to you and your wonderful medicine, which restored me to new life and health in five months, and saved me from an awful operation."—Miss Irene Hapgood, 1023 Sandwich St., Windsor, Ont.

Ovaritis or inflammation of the ovaries or fallopian tubes which adjoin the ovaries may result from sudden stopping of the monthly flow, from inflammation of the womb, and many other causes. The slightest indication of trouble with the ovaries, indicated by dull throbbing pain in the side, accompanied by heat and shooting pains, should claim your instant attention. It will not cure itself, and a hospital operation, with all its terrors, may easily result from neglect.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words.
"Before I wrote to you telling how I felt, I had doctored for over two years steady and spent lots of money in medicine besides, but it all failed to do me any good. My menses did not appear in that time, and I suffered much pain. I would daily have fainting spells, headache, backache and bearing down pain, and was so weak that it was hard for me to do my work.
"I used your medicine and treatment as directed, and after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, my menses appeared, my womb troubles left me, and I have been regular ever since. I used fourteen bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier together, and am now restored to perfect health. Had it not been for you, I would have been in my grave.
"I will always recommend your wonderful remedies, and hope that these few lines may lead others who suffer as I did to try your remedies."—Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, R. R. No. 1, Manning, Iowa.

Such unquestionable testimony proves the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over diseases of women.
Women should remember that they are privileged to consult Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., about their illness, entirely free.

CAUSE OF THE DOWNFALL.
Archbishop Ryan tells a story of a philanthropic man who used to make a practice of visiting the eastern penitentiary, in Philadelphia, and becoming acquainted with prisoners about to be released, so as to help them make a new start in life.
One day when he was calling on a man whose term was about to expire, he noticed a man in stripes who impressed him. Going over to him, the Good Samaritan said:
"What brought you to this place, my friend?"
"Sneezing,"
"Sneezing?"
"Sneezing."

A Quart Baby.
Now and again there is an item in the newspapers concerning the birth of a puny baby so small that a quart cup holds it comfortably. If the article told all the facts it would probably tell also of a mother who in weakness and misery had looked forward to the baby's advent with shrinking and fear.
To have fine, healthy children the mother must be healthy, and it is the common testimony of mothers that the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only promotes the mother's health but also gives her strength to give her child.
"Favorite Prescription" accomplishes these results by tranquilizing the nerves, promoting a healthy appetite, and giving refreshing sleep. It increases physical vigor and gives great muscular elasticity, so that the baby's advent is practically painless. It is the best of tonics for nursing mothers.
"I gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. J. W. G. Stephens, of Mila, Northumberland Co., Va. "Before my third little boy was born I took six bottles. He is the finest child I have seen from birth, and I suffered very much less than I ever did before.
I unhesitatingly advise expectant mothers to use the 'Favorite Prescription.'" Dr. Pierce now feels fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which he cannot cure. All he asks is a fair and reasonable trial of his means of cure.
Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21

CAUSE OF FALLING HAIR.

Dandruff, which is a Germ Disease—Kill the Germ.

Falling hair is caused by dandruff, which is a germ disease. The germ in-fuses into the root of the hair, where it destroys the vitality of the hair, causing the hair to fall out, dig up the cuticle in little scales, called dandruff or scurf. You can't stop the falling hair without curing the dandruff, and you can't cure the dandruff without killing the dandruff germ. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Newbro's Herpicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ. Herpicide is also a delightful hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.

Hyomel's Wonderful Action in Curing A Case of Thirty Years Standing Guaranteed by H. Goodman

Do not try to cure catarrh by taking drugs into the stomach. It cannot be cured in that manner. The only way in which this common disease can be cured is through a direct application that will kill the germ of catarrh and prevent their growth.
Hyomel is the only known method of treatment that accomplishes this. It is the simplest, most pleasant, and only absolute cure for catarrh that has ever been discovered.

Mrs. C. A. Derby of Beverly, Mass., writes: "My husband has had catarrh trouble for thirty years and Hyomei is the first thing which has ever helped him. He had catarrh in his worst form and nothing except Hyomei ever had any effect on it whatever. This gave him relief from the first and he has steadily improved until now he is cured."

The complete Hyomel outfit costs but one dollar, consisting of an inhaler and sufficient Hyomel to last for several weeks. Extra bottles can be obtained for fifty cents. H. Goodman has so much confidence in the power of Hyomei to cure catarrh that he will sell the treatment under his personal guarantee to refund the money if the purchaser can say it did not benefit. Ask him to show you the strong guarantee under which it is sold.
